Opportunity for Aitkameksheng Youth (18-30yrs) interested in the mining sector to apply to become an Ambassador at the world's most important mining conference hosted in Toronto, March 2-5, 2025

PDAC INDIGENOUS YOUTH & EARLY CAREER
AMBASSADOR PROGRAM

This Program aims to connect Indigenous youth and early career professionals from across Canada to the world's premier mineral exploration and mining convention. It is the PDAC's hope that becoming an Ambassador will inspire careers in the mineral industry, and provide Ambassadors with valuable networking opportunities and new insights into the PDAC and the mineral industry to take back to their communities and organizations. Application forms are accepted on an ongoing basis. Review of applications and selection of Ambassadors will begin October 1st and continue until the program is full.

Successful Ambassadors will receive:

- A complimentary All Access Pass to the PDAC Convention
- Priority access to the Indigenous Program Reception
- An exclusive invitation to the Sharing Circle: A Gathering of Indigenous Leaders with the PDAC President
- Financial assistance to support travel and accommodation expenses incurred while attending convention
- Unique mentoring opportunities

Tutoring Options

As per the Education Policy 4.0, student band members may be eligible for tutoring financial assistance based on funding availability.

We would like to remind parents/guardians of this opportunity. Though Education Support Workers can coordinate sessions, parents/caregivers are encouraged to coordinate sessions to avoid time delays due to third party coordination.

If interested, please submit quotes to education.programmer@wlfn.com for consideration.

Location: Mino Bimaadiziwin Office – Health Side of the Band Office

Traditional Medicine Practitioner Keith D. Smith and his Assistant Valerie G. Smith provide Traditional Medicine services.

Keith Smith is an enrolled member of Red Lake Band of Chippewas in Minnesota. He belongs to two traditional societies, and over the past 35 years has learned traditional medicine practices from respected elders, teachers, and advisors. Valerie Smith is an enrolled member of Ho-Chunk Nation in Wisconsin. She was raised within her family's society and traditional ways and has been learning and supporting her husband Keith as his assistant/helper in the practice.

Together Keith and Val play an important role in helping Anishnaabe People be physically, and spiritually healthy. They live and promote an alcohol and drug-free life.
