NAME OUR PROGRAM

Quality Improvement Project

Atikameksheng Anishnawbek has secured a three year grant for the development and implementation of an Early Learning Program that holds its strength in culture, language, and natural laws. The Quality Improvement Project (QIP) is based on the Seven Grandfather Teachings in Early Learning and Well Being.

We are looking for a name that reflects the spirit of the project. The QIP is foundational in Anishinaabemowin and culture of Atikameksheng in which we are writing curriculum and creating resources to be used for families. This program will offer interactive activities that honour our Anishinaabe way of life.

We need your help to rename this Quality Improvement Project with an Anishinaabemowin name that honours our young ones and the foundations of our culture. We ask for Atikameksheng members to send in an entry in Anishinaabemowin and the translation in English.

The selected entry will receive $300.00.

The deadline is March 28th @ 4:00 pm.
Atikameksheng Debendaagziwaad of any age can enter.
Must be in Anishinaabemowin.

Please forward your entry by email to Paula Naponse, QIP Coordinator at pnaponse@gmail.com.

We look forward to seeing your entries.
Miigwetch.

Measles vaccine

Protect your children, protect yourself, protect your community.

Vaccines have been protecting people and communities against diseases for many years. Boost your vaccine confidence by learning how vaccines can protect First Nations, Inuit and Métis from measles.

What is measles?

Measles is a virus that spreads easily and can lead to serious complications, such as brain swelling and death. Measles can cause high fever, cold-like symptoms and a bad cough, followed by a red, blotchy rash on the face that spreads down the body. Measles is especially dangerous for children under 5 years, pregnant people and those with a compromised immune system.

Vaccination is the best way to protect yourself and your children from getting measles.

Why should I get this vaccine?

When you have all the recommended doses of the measles vaccine, protection is nearly 100%. The vaccine can protect against severe symptoms and complications caused by the virus.

Who should get this vaccine?

In Canada, the measles vaccine is usually given in childhood but is also recommended for those who did not receive all doses or never had a measles infection in the past.

Canada has 2 measles vaccines: measles-mumps-rubella (MMR) or measles-mumps-rubella-varicella (MMRV).

Where can I get the measles vaccine?

All provinces and territories offer free measles vaccines as part of their routine immunization program. If you think you or your child missed any measles vaccine doses, please contact your local healthcare provider or public health department.

What are the possible vaccine side effects?

Most side effects are minor and resolve on their own. Common side effects include pain, redness and swelling at the injection site. You may experience a mild fever, joint pain and a rash appearing 1 to 3 weeks after the vaccine. Severe reactions are rare.

Talk to your community health nurse or healthcare provider about how to help relieve symptoms after vaccination.

What to do after vaccination?

Wait in the clinic for 15 minutes after receiving your vaccine. Notify someone immediately if you experience any side effects.

Seek medical help if your symptoms get worse (for example, trouble breathing, swelling of face or rash) or last longer than 48 hours.

Early Mineral Exploration Plan Application Notice:

Kukugami Project

Atikameksheng Anishnawbek has received an early mineral exploration plan notification from the Ontario Ministry of Mines (MINES) for the proposed activities in Street Township, located around 12km South of Wanapitei Lake. A prospector Leonard Cook has submitted the plan application to MINES to conduct exploration activities that will include mechanized surface stripping of an area less than 100 sq. meters, and trail construction to access the site. Please see page 2 for further explanation of the activities.

The proposed project location is shown in the images below:

Please send your questions, comments, or concerns regarding this early mineral exploration plan by email to mineral.development@wlfn.com by April 7, 2025.

Mechanized Surface Stripping:

Mechanized surface stripping is a process in early mineral exploration that uses heavy equipment to remove vegetation and soil (overburden) from bedrock. Pressurized water pumps and hoses, similar to those used to fight forest fires, may then be used to remove the remaining soil and debris from the rock surface. The exposed bare rock can reveal information about the presence of minerals. This information is used to draw geological maps that can inform and guide future exploration.

Photo 1: Picture (L) showing area that is stripped, washed and being sampled; Picture (R) showing power washing used to strip and wash the overburden.

Mechanized surface stripping is commonly done when there is not enough exposed bedrock for geologists to examine adequately. Stripping is often used to uncover zones of mineral enrichment identified by geophysical surveys.

Potential disturbances from such processes are the removal of vegetation and soil, and water usage from nearby lakes, rivers or streams to wash any remaining soil on bedrock. Access trails may be blazed to provide access to the location for people and equipment. After completion of the stripping process, the site is usually left to grow back naturally, and in some cases, it is reseeded. The stripped overburden is stockpiled in a safe and stable manner and stripped areas contoured to a stable angle.
