EVERY CHILD MATTERS

Every Child Matters is a very important movement that highlights the dignity, rights, and well-being of all children – a message deeply rooted in First Nation community and culture. Every Child Matters honours the First Nations children who attended residential schools, supports Survivors, and advocates for the rights, dignity, and well-being of all children. This movement serves as a united voice for truth, reconciliation, and the healing of intergenerational trauma stemming from the residential school system.

Atikameksheng Anishnawbek installed a bench in honour of Every Child Matters and was meant for use and enjoyment for all Debendaagziwaad. Unfortunately, the commemorative bench was recently burnt and damaged during a fireworks celebration. We remind all patrons of the monument site to ensure use of the bench is done in a respectful manner.

Atikameksheng Anishnawbek will repair the commemorative bench and request that we all work together to take care of this Every Child Matters Bench and all other important sites within our community.

Miigwetch,

Chief Executive Officer | Chief Administration Officer

LITTLE READERS CLUB

WHERE? KENDAASIIGAMIK – 212 MAANI STREET
WHEN? Tuesday June 30th @ 3 – 5 PM

WHAT IS LITTLE READERS CLUB?

Little Readers Club is a caregiver-attended literacy program that brings stories to life through reading, language, and hands-on activities. Each session features a book inspired by the season, moon teachings, culture, or fun themes, followed by interactive activities connected to the story. Indigenous language is naturally incorporated throughout reading and activities to encourage early language learning and connection. Families can enjoy story time, creative activities, snacks, and drinks in a welcoming space that supports literacy, imagination, and cultural connection.

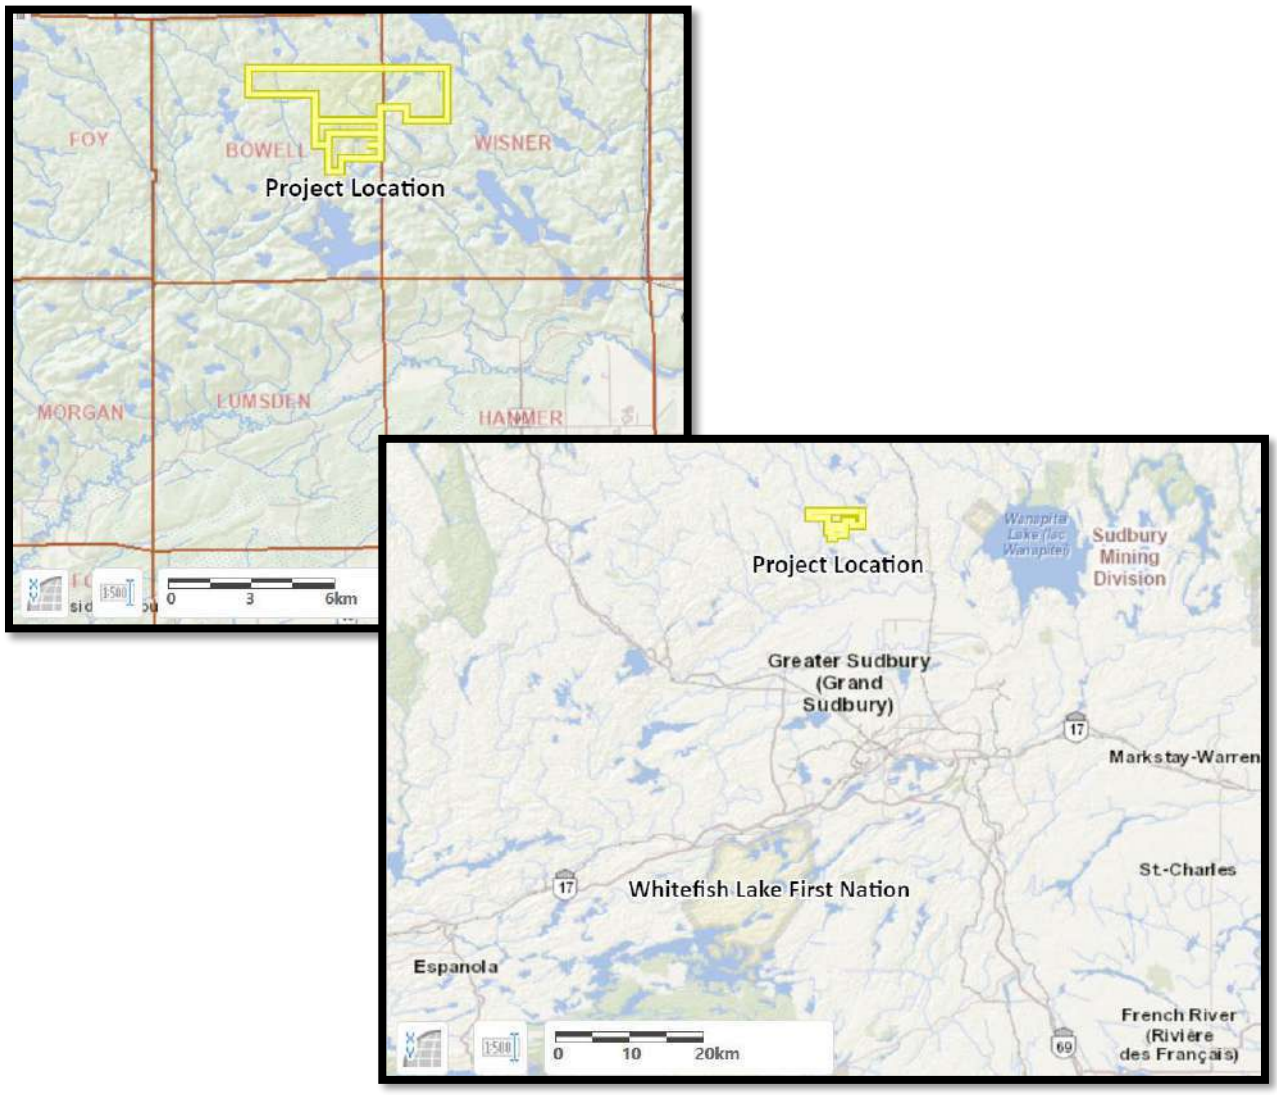

NOTE FOR FAMILIES

To support connection and shared learning, this is a caregiver-attended program. We ask that caregivers remain present and supervise their child(ren) throughout the program, while staff are there to offer support and guidance.
